

OPEN CASTING CALL FOR TEENAGERS! NBC REALITY TV SHOW "ENDURANCE 6"

once-in-a-lifetime adventure...

ENDURANCE, the hit reality competition series that airs on Discovery Kids on NBC and the Discovery Kids Channel is casting now for a sixth season that will put kids through the ultimate mental and physical tests of endurance. Through courage, heart, stamina, instinct, strength, discipline, knowledge, leadership, luck and commitment, our planet, and the living creatures on it, have withstood countless tests of ENDURANCE.

...And now, 20 teenagers will travel from all over the country to compete in the most challenging teen game show of all time, ENDURANCE. They will be cast off to a secret location without the comforts of home. Their mission: to compete in a series of physical challenges for the title of Endurance Champion. Each episode introduces a new challenge and sees one unlucky group get sent home in the dreaded temple ceremony. In the end, the two-person team that survives these challenges and collects the most pyramid pieces will be crowned the winner.

We are looking for real kids and teens between the ages of 12-15, all types; who love a challenge, adventure and fun! Who are bright, outgoing and can clearly articulate their thoughts and feelings. Who aren't afraid of adventure...and think they have what it takes to star in this 18-part series. ENDURANCE 6 will begin shooting this summer and will debut on Discovery Kids on NBC and the Discovery Kids Channel in the fall.
